

4 Bedroom cottage

Summer 2009

Type of Property: 1820^s, North Molton.

Previous Heating System: Oil stove/ night storage heater and economy 7 hot water.

Existing Insulation: Solid wall, suspended floor, most windows double glazed and 100mm loft insulation.

Property Upgrades: Topped up loft insulation, additional of double glazing.

Additional options: none, hot water remains as before (economy 7).

Back up: Oil stove

New heating system: heating only, radiators, FTC1 control with built-in weather compensation

Air Source Unit: 8.5kw ECODAN unit.

Customer comment:

"I only used to heat part of my house due to the high cost of night storage heaters and the fact they don't heat the house in the evening when I required it most. As you get older you feel the cold, so I needed to make improvements. By installing this system it has cost me a similar amount to run as the old system but my house is now comfortable all over and all the time."

